Chicago, IL (October 2, 2009) — The results of the 2009 Chicago area kosher survey conducted by Kosher Community Surveys LLC have just been released. The survey asked local consumers their opinions of Chicago area kosher stores, restaurants, and bakeries. Overall winners were:

Best Kosher Restaurant:	Shallots Bistro
Best Kosher Bakery:	Breadsmith of Skokie
Best Kosher Store:	Jewel Food Store

Other establishments with strong showings include Ta'boun Grill, Romanian Kosher, Hungarian Kosher Foods, The Sandwich Club, Tein Li Chow, and Srulie's Delicatessen. Neil Rosenbaum, President of Kosher Community Surveys LLC, observed, "Chicago's kosher consumers deserve restaurants, bakeries, and stores that focus on their needs. Positive and negative feedback provided by the survey can help establishments do just that." Over 300 people participated in this year's survey.

The results of the survey are compiled and published in the final report that can be found on the company's website. The final survey report provides significant insight into the community's collective opinion on Chicago area kosher establishments. The report is a unique resource for consumers to use in deciding which businesses to patronize. In addition, the results of the survey can provide restaurants, bakeries and stores with guidance on how to better serve their customers. The survey is conducted on an annual basis to provide Chicago citizens and visitors a means to evaluate changes in the quality of kosher establishments.
