Philadelphia Consumers Identify the Area's Best Kosher Restaurants, Stores and Bakeries

Philadelphia, PA (December 7, 2006) — The results of the first-ever Philadelphia area kosher survey have just been released by the survey organization, Kosher Community Surveys LLC (KCS). The survey, conducted in the fall, asked local consumers about their opinions of Philadelphia area kosher stores, restaurants, and bakeries.

While a number of establishments had impressive scores, stand-outs include Mama's Vegetarian Restaurant and Singapore Vegetarian Kosher Restaurant in the restaurant category, ShopRite of the Garden State Pavilion and ShopRite on the Boulevard in the stores category, and New York Bagels and Roling's Bakery in bakery category.

Neil Rosenbaum, President of Kosher Community Surveys LLC, said, "Some of this area's establishments received higher scores than I have seen in any of the cities surveyed this year."

The final survey report provides significant insight into the collective opinion of the community about Philadelphia's kosher establishments. The report is a unique resource for consumers to use in deciding which businesses to patronize. In addition, the results of the survey can provide restaurants, bakeries and stores with guidance on how to better serve their customers. The survey will be conducted on an annual basis to provide Philadelphia citizens and visitors a means to evaluate changes in the quality of existing and future kosher establishments.

The final report of the survey can be found on the company's website at <http://www.kosher-community-surveys.com/>.
